- Supports retention in a 94% turnover industry
- Affordable coverage for young and uninsured warehouse workers

DISABILITY INSURANCE

- Protects income for physically demanding warehouse roles
- Essential for drivers with chronic pain or mobility issues
- Safeguards paycheck-to-paycheck workers during recovery
- Strong value for older employees (24% of drivers are 55+)

HOSPITAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE

- Offsets hospital costs from warehouse injuries from strain and lifting
- Provides critical financial relief for drivers with limited savings
- Covers costs travel, lodging, or family care during extended recovery

CRITICAL ILLNESS INSURANCE

- Supports drivers at high risk for heart disease
- Lump-sum payouts ease recovery and treatment costs
- Protects single-income households from financial shocks
- Encourages preventive care and early detection

ACCIDENT INSURANCE

- Covers off-the-job injuries from active lifestyles
- Extends protection to employee dependents
- Eases burden of emergency medical expenses
- Popular with younger, physically active workers

Industry: Logistics

The logistics industry runs on reliability and resilience —and your workforce deserves benefits that match. Decisely's Voluntary Benefits program offers affordable, meaningful protection that speaks directly to the needs of long-haul drivers, warehouse teams, and logistics support staff.

Why It Matters

Voluntary benefits provide essential financial protection for logistics workers—supporting single-income households, reducing turnover and helping physically active employees recover and stay on the job.
